

Spelling

The children in each year group spend 3 lessons a week specifically focussing on developing their understanding of spelling. At Ashley Junior School, our teaching of spelling reflects the 2014 National curriculum requirements and focuses on the teaching of the Statutory Word lists for each year group and spelling rules and conventions. The 'No Nonsense' spelling scheme forms the basis for our progressions in teaching spelling. All weekly spelling patterns are displayed in every classroom and woven into all the children's writing journeys throughout the year. The following pages share the spellings that will be covered in your child's year group.

To support your child's spelling further SpellingFrame is set as home learning. This is an online programme that supports your child as every word is read aloud. Every word is also broken into syllables (or for EYFS / Year 1 words, phonemes) and these too are read aloud. Every word is also provided in a sentence, and every sentence read aloud, so that children also learn the meanings of the words.

- Introducing spelling rules- spellings on display in the classroom
- Multi sensory learning of words- word searches, pyramids, rainbow writing, shape writing
- 'Comic Sans' font used
- Personalised spelling book mark in writing books
- Hand writing practise x 3 per week using the spelling rule
- Spellings are woven into the writing journeys
- Lexia, Nessy, Beat dyslexia- SEND
- Spellings are picked up in the children's writing maximum of 3 errors
