Spelling at Ashley Junior School

Intent: Our Vision for Spelling
At Ashley Junior School, our vision is to empower every child to become a confident, accurate, and fluent speller who can articulate their ideas clearly in writing. The children in each year group spend time specifically focussing on developing their understanding of spelling. Our teaching of spelling directly reflects the 2014 National Curriculum requirements, focusing systematically on statutory word lists for each year group alongside essential spelling rules and conventions. We aim to foster an independent curiosity about language, giving pupils the tools they need to check, correct, and weave vocabulary seamlessly throughout their wider writing journeys.

Implementation: How We Teach Spelling
We deliver a comprehensive, structured, and multi-sensory curriculum designed to embed spelling patterns into long-term memory.

- Curriculum: The 'No Nonsense' spelling scheme forms the basis for our progressions in teaching spelling across Key Stage 2
- Classroom Environment: All weekly spelling patterns are displayed in every classroom using clear, handwritten words to model accuracy. Any printed display text specifically utilises the 'Century Gothic' font to support visual clarity and readability
- Multi-Sensory Learning: Pupils engage with words through interactive, tactile strategies including pyramid spelling, rainbow writing, and shape writing. To support high-frequency word recall, tactile spelling fans are actively utilised where beneficial
- Independent Tools: Classrooms are equipped with dictionaries to encourage children to independently find and verify spellings. Personalised spelling bookmarks may also be used inside writing books for targeted, individual support
- Curriculum Integration: Spellings are woven into writing journeys across the year so that patterns are continually revisited at different points. Furthermore, handwriting practice regularly utilises current spelling words to reinforce muscle memory and letter joins
- Home Learning: To support your child's spelling further, targeted spelling tasks are set online via Spelling Frame as routine home learning
- Year 6 SATs Preparation: As pupils reach the end of Key Stage 2, Year 6 will explicitly revise multiple spelling rules on the lead-up to their KS2 SATs to ensure confidence and precision under exam conditions.

Impact: The Outcomes of Our Spelling Curriculum
The success of our curriculum is evidenced by pupils who can spell with a high degree of accuracy and take pride in the presentation of their work. As spelling patterns are systematically woven into all the children's writing journeys throughout the year, pupils successfully transfer their knowledge from discrete practices into their independent, extended writing. Teachers monitor this impact closely during marking; spelling errors are picked up directly in the children's writing up to a maximum of 3 errors per piece, ensuring feedback is focused and actionable without overwhelming the writer. Ultimately, our pupils transition to secondary school as resilient, self-correcting writers with a secure grasp of English spelling conventions.
